(If additional space is needed, attach pages the same size as this sheet, and number each.)

Section I. Title: A Local Law to establish the residency requirements for the appointed office of Code Enforcement Officer.

Section II. Authority: This Local Law is adopted pursuant to Municipal Home Rule Law Section 10{1}{ii}{a}{1} that grants to local governments the authority to enact local laws regarding the qualifications of local officers.

Section III. Supersession: This Local Law shall supersede Town Law Section 23(1) in its application to the office of Code Enforcement Officer for the Town of Lebanon.

Section IV. Residency requirements for the position of the Code Enforcement Officer for the Town of Lebanon: The person holding the office of Code Enforcement Officer in the Town of Lebanon need not be a resident nor an elector of the Town of Lebanon, provided however, that such person shall reside in the County in which such town is located or an adjoining county within the State of New York.

Section V. Inconsistency: All other local laws and ordinances of the Town of Lebanon that are inconsistent with the provisions of this local law are hereby repealed; provided however, that such repeal shall only be to the extent of such inconsistency and in all other respects this local law shall be in addition to such other local laws or ordinances regulating and governing the subject matter covered by this local law.

Section VI. Savings Clause: If any clause, sentence, paragraph, word, section or part of this local law shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, illegal or invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation of the clause, sentence, paragraph, word, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

Section VII. Effective date: This Local Law shall take effect immediately upon filing with the Office of the Secretary of State.
